TAKE TIME TO LIVE...

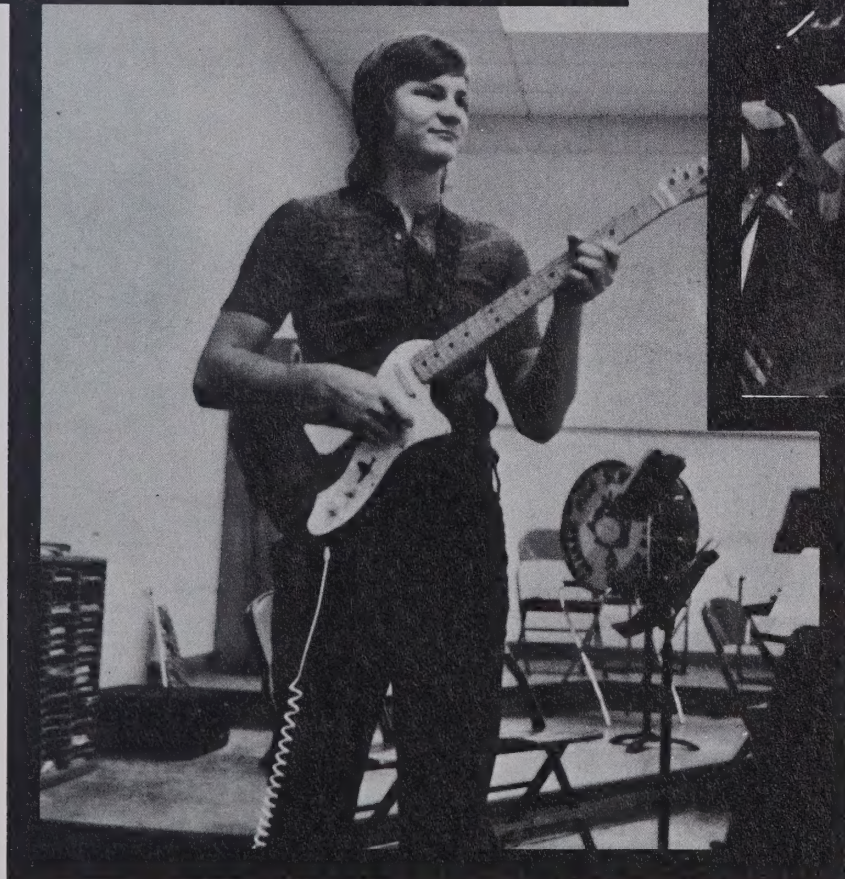

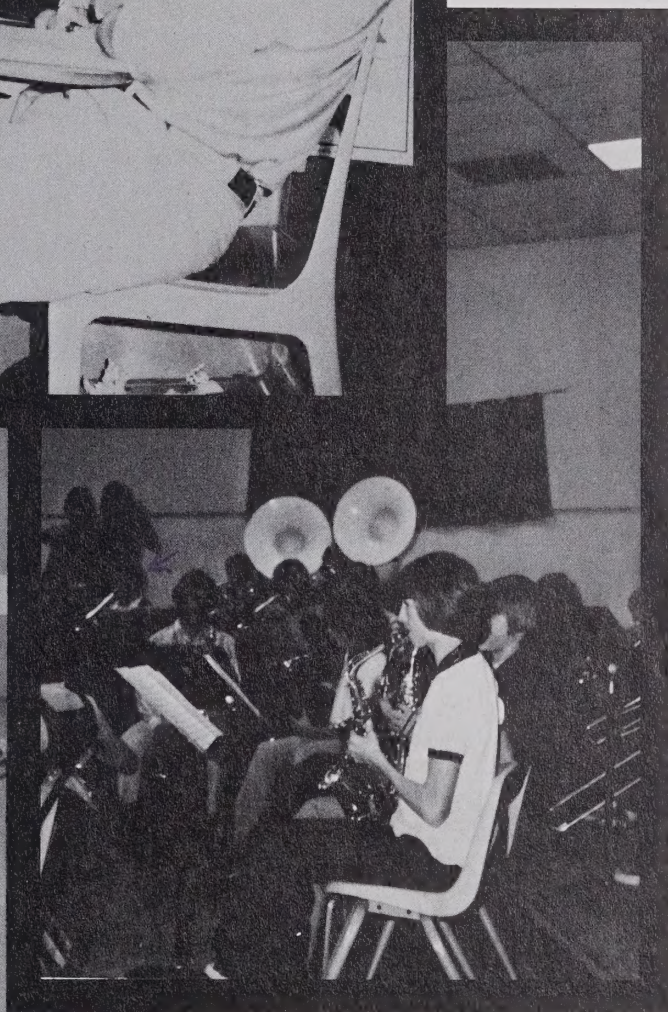

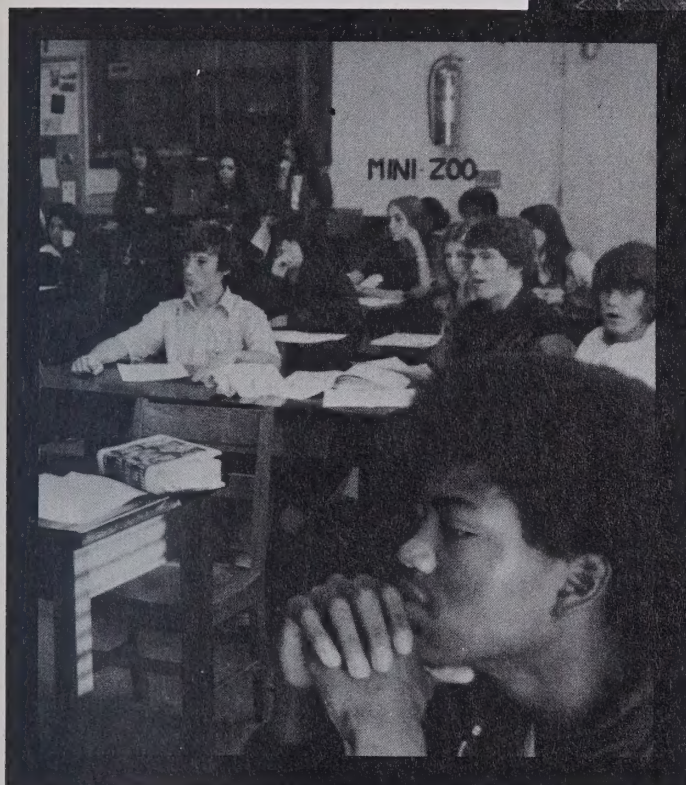

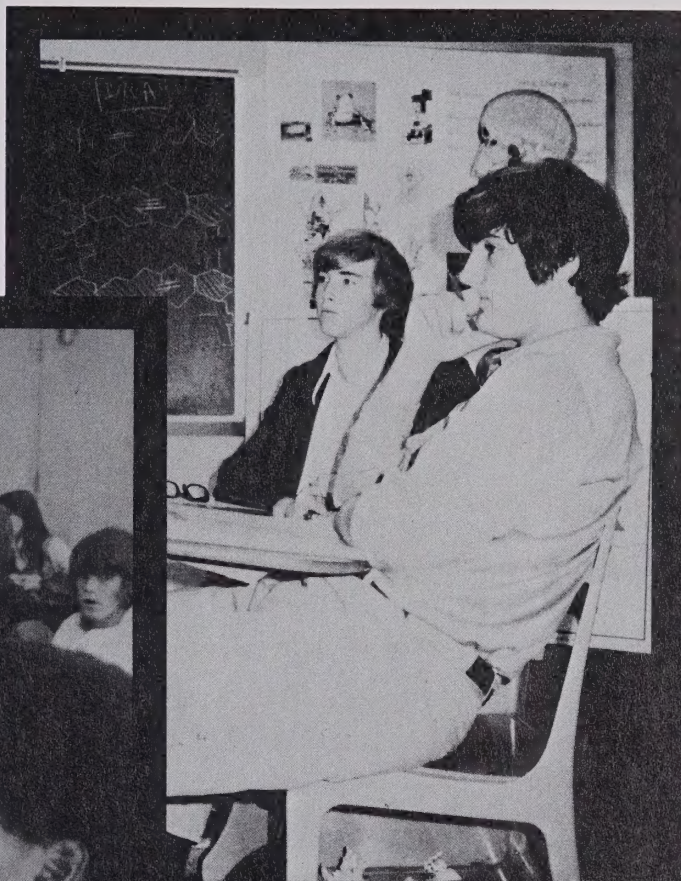

In all ways let your moments glow with life. Pray as did Matthew Arnold: "Calm, Calm me more, nor let me die, before I have begun to live."

Wilfred A. Peterson

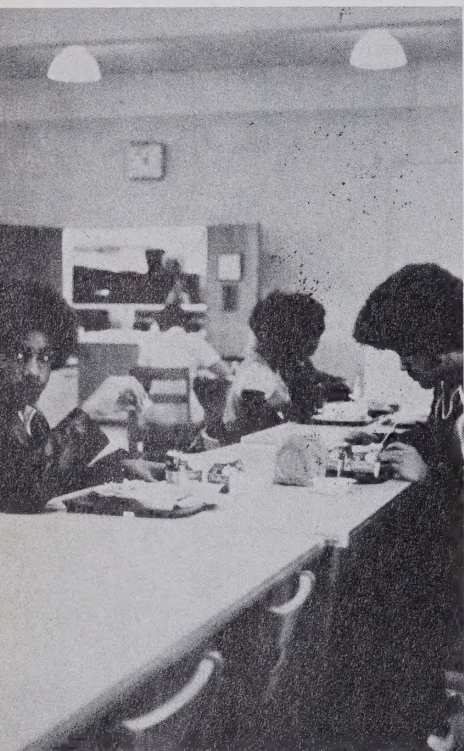

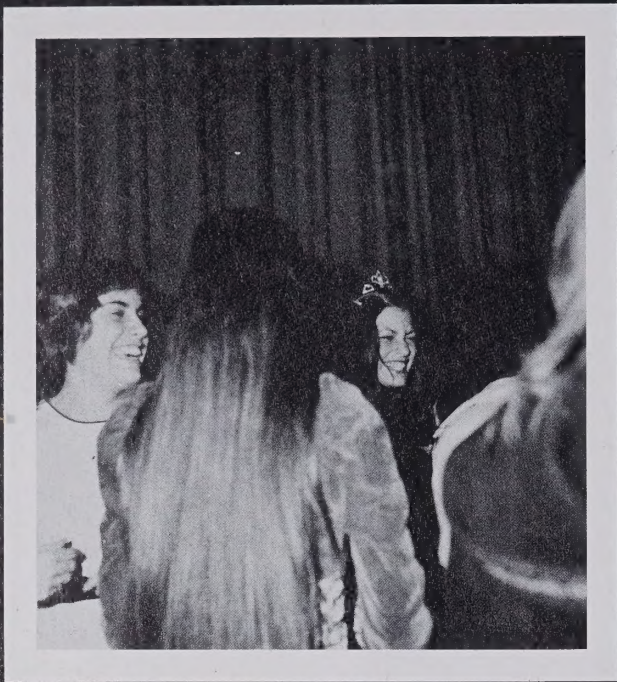

TIME to absorb the thoughts of poets and philosophers, seers and prophets.

TIME for music
that washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.

TIME for friendships; time for talks by the fire and walks beneath the stars.

TIME for laughter; time
for letting go and filling the heart with mirth.

TIME for nature; time for flower gardens, trees, birds and sunsets.

TIME for travel; time for pilgrimage and festival, for shrine and exhibit.

TIME to love and be loved, for love is the greatest thing in the world.

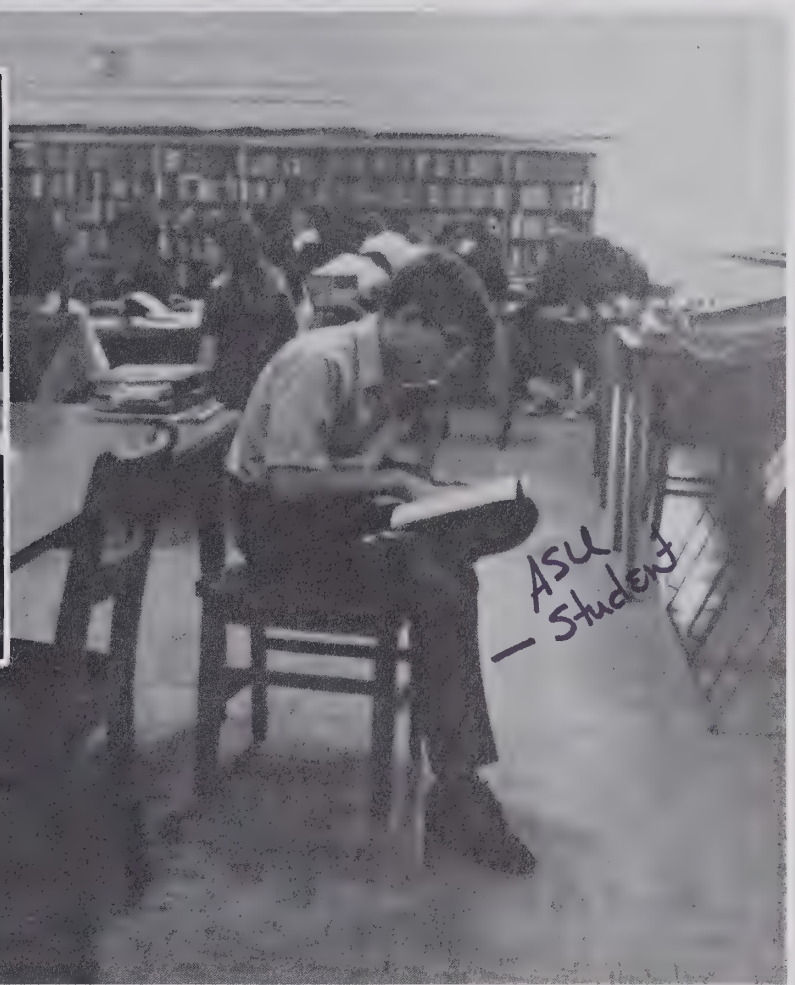

TIME for people; time for the interplay of personalities and the exchange of ideas.

TIME for solitude; time to be quiet and alone and to look within.

TIME to give of yourself, your talents, your abilities, devotions, convictions, that you may contribute to the onward march of man.

On the rain-soaked afternoon of October sixth, the 1972 Homecoming activities began. The parade commenced at four o'clock and featured floats, class attendants, sponsors and our mighty Red Devil Marching Band.

During half-time of the game the homecoming court was presented to the crowd and float winners were announced, seniors taking first place. Climaxing half-time was the announcement of Miss Jean Allen as 1972 Homecoming Queen.

Rounding out the evening, the "Devils" came through with a roaring victory over Bartlett-Yancey (34-0), and a dance featuring Meadowbrook was enjoyed by all.

'73

On the evening of December 2, 1972, a week of hard work and frustrations came to an end. At 8:00 P.M., the lights dimmed and the Master and Mistress of ceremonies, Edward Patten and Pam Mincy, introduced the twelve lovely contestants, who were in casual dress, as they appeared on stage. Talent and evening gown competition followed, after which the judges left to cast votes. During the judges' deliberation, the GHS Stage Band entertained.

After a short interval, the three finalists were announced: Miss Kay Chester, Miss Kathy Linens, and Miss Janice Blaylock took honors. The finalists were asked two questions, one humorous and one serious.

Soon, the moment arrived: Miss Janice Blaylock was crowned Miss GHS of 1973. First runner-up was Miss Linens and Second Runner-up, Miss Chester. Other awards were Miss Congeniality, Miss Eve Carmen, and Most Talented non-finalist, Miss Sue Hamlett.

We have had several entertaining and educational assemblies this year. George Karl, Carolina basketball star gave us a talk on drugs. The Champions Singing Group, featuring Bob and Carol, entertained the students with contemporary religious music. As an introduction to basketball season, Coach Bowman and the Varsity Team presented an assembly on rules and techniques of basketball.

SENIORS

The Mighty Red Devil Football Team produced their finest season since 1966. The team put forth great effort and ended the '72 season with a 7-3-0 record. The experience of the ten Seniors and the brilliant teamwork of all the squad members brought about a showing that Graham High can be proud of.

The Devils came on strong by opening the season with three straight wins, and it looked as if we were going to go on to an undefeated season. But, Lady Luck hid her face, and the Red Devils lost the next two games.

Homecoming rolled around, bringing Bartlett — Yancey to test the Devils' fire, but they were unprepared to meet the Devils' determination not to make it loss number three. Our team got it all together that rain-soaked night and smashed the opposition, reaping a victory which proved to be the turning point of the season. Some of the fire was taken out, though, as the Red Devils were defeated by the Ragsdale Tigers. Our Devils rallied from this defeat and finished the season with a three-game winning streak. Give em' Hell Devils!!

The Junior Varsity put in a good season this year with a 6-3-1 record. After losing the first game against Cummings, Graham bounced back to win the next two games by over-powering margins. The third game, which was forfeited by Southeast, gave us a 3-1 record. Losing to Bartlett-Yancey six to nothing dampened the team's spirits, but the boys came around and finished the season by winning two, losing one and tying one.

The J.V.'s fine efforts landed them the runner-up position in the Mid-State and City-County Championship.

The Mighty Red Devil Varsity Team had a sensational season this year with a 14-2-0 conference record. Our starting five was a little odd, consisting of three seniors and two freshmen, but the combination proved fatal for our opponents. The whole team put forth great effort all through the season. After leading the conference through almost the whole season, Graham looks to go far in the Mid-State Tournament! Yeah! Yeah! H—— Yeah!

Suicides, sweat, hitting 20 lay-ups in a row, and long practices paid off for our Girls' Varsity as they worked their way to the Number 1 position in the conference. They won 17 games against a single loss to Ragsdale, who was tied for Number 1 position. Led by four seniors, the team was coached by Mrs. Anne Maynard.

This was the first year the girls played directly before the boys' nightcap game and a large crowd turned out to support them. Our Red Devil Spirit encouraged both teams. This year we can truly say, "We're Number One."

The Marching Band got off to a relatively slow start this year due to a sudden change in directors. But they were able to get it together and make some fine performances on the football field at half time. The band also went to the Cary Band Festival at Cary, North Carolina, on November 11, 1972. Our Marching Band also marched in the G.H.S. Homecoming parade and the Graham Christmas parade.

This year there was a course offered during sixth period for the seventeen members of the G.H.S. Jazz Ensemble. Their music included everything from old blues to modern rock. Their appearances this year included the Miss G.H.S. Pageant, the WAG staff dance, the Alamance County Democratic rally, the Belk-Beck Christmas party and performances at other schools in the Graham area.

Which of these jobs does it take to make Cannon fabrics?

All of them. Each occupation listed is an important part of the Cannon organization. And there are many more jobs just as necessary. It takes a wide variety of skills and talents to operate a modern, successful textile company. This means there are many job and career opportunities for young men and women. Company training programs offer employees the latest in technical knowledge and know-how.

Ambitious young people, looking for challenging jobs, will find plenty of opportunities for advancement and promotion. After all, we do have 24,000 people involved in the design, styling, manufacturing, sale and distribution of beautiful household textiles and other products. Cannon, of course, is an equal opportunity employer.

This has been an excellent year for our staff. With many competent people working together, we have come up with a book we hope the whole student body of G.H.S. will enjoy.

There have been many new people on the staff this year, and only three returning from past years, Sylvia Victor, Lynn Beaudry, and myself. We also have a new advisor, Miss Faircloth. We did get off to a slow start because of so many new people, but the staff has gotten everything together by working very hard. I would like to thank them all for their effort and cooperation.

We, the WAG staff, would like to extend a big "thank you" to Mr. Madrazo for the many pictures he has contributed. Also, special thanks go to Pam Jones at Delmar for the help she has given to us.

We have made this year's WAG the best we were able. There are many good pictures thanks to our photographers under the direction of John Beaudry. The staff has used these to invent layouts that we hope will satisfy you the students of G.H.S. and will give you a yearbook to remember forever.

you didn't ask me to sign here (in your annual) but I did anyway <sup>na! na!</sup> ~~na! na!~~ so there!!! Now that I've lost my train of thought, I won't write anything. No, seriously I want to extend a great big thank you for your counseling service to me. My mind is blank
I'm not kidding, oh my goodness. Think! Think!
Let's remember, OK? First of all, reruns, Our freshman year, my dislike of you, <sup>nice</sup> ~~huh!~~ then our sophomore year, Mrs. Honeycutt's room, Larry Allison, weddings under the Rose Bush, Gary's Fairy, "Hello, may I speak to Gary T or, I mean wh Gary". This is Cynthia? <sup>was that</sup> ~~the name!~~ junior year comes along and with it Kathy Anderson, Johnny Brewer, the Cryptal Casket, plunger party, "George ate the cheeseball", Duncan's Esso (Exxon), Alamarce Ambulance, Robin,
"come to 111 Montreecourt", the junior float and B.H.'s comment "yeah, he's good looking!"
Prom, the brotherhood center etc. and the most important element of your gr. year. Mr.
Bernie Oakley, Jr. Next comes our last year, funny, I can't remember stuff from this year, I guess we didn't do as many dumb things. Ah yep, Our Marching Devils and their manager "Lina, I need a plume," "Lina take my coat down to the field", etc. Our winning float, <sup>wow!</sup> ~~the Death of a Salesman~~, the gas station bathroom across from Aycock, "come on you guys hurry!" 4th period collecting notes, New Year's Eve, New Year's day, our "walk", "Will he live down there near Saxapahaw somewhere, he's a nice guy"??
Frankie, Don, "you screw don't you"??? and yep, the snowbound night at mine and Fowler's houses the six of us. I suppose I'd better shut up, thank you for your advice and comfort through the time
I was being done away with love ya Luvina.

Keep in touch

good luck at Carolina

Liza,
you're not a bit funny, 'cause you not as funny as you look! Remember who said that? I wish I could forget the person who said it! The next time we don't go on field trip because of the "unexpected" weather, we'll just go on our own field trip. And didn't we have fun in all those "physics labs" we had. "This is true, I'll accept that." And don't forget Audio visual day and your New Year's Eve party and those people who came who you didn't know who kept staring at me when I walked up who were walking away at the time. And don't forget what happened before the prom, me being a fool, and those dances I didn't dance with you. I hacked you - know - who thought (I didn't get her any). You're O.K., Liza, 'cause "you're out of the woods, you're out of the dark, you're out of the night; come into the sun, come into the light." "yes, let's run!" Ok, thanks for that glob of wax you gave me! And by the way, our neighbors found 4 rats in their garage and they burned them too. So my mother isn't that nutty! Remember your Physics Christmas art (I did for gold chest, = donkey's tail, etc.). Well, that's about all I can say, I'm sure there's more, and among all those "don't forgets", please don't forget me! I'll probably see you at UNC (if I don't quit first!), so until then...
P.S. How is the antidisestablishmentarianism movement going?
That is irrelevant!

"Happy trails to you;
until we meet again!"

now that I've begun to write again my mind is also blank again. But, I'll try! Here goes, first, my first experiences with ---, "flush it, here comes someone." I forgot to mention "Lady Sings the Blues", last new year's eve and last new year's morning around 6-o'clock, I could have killed you! How about the time someone <sup>wonder who</sup> forced me to call the Brotherhood Center, "uh, I have this friend and I think she smokes pot" "she hangs around this guy that does it alot" "what can I do?" "do you think Johnny Brewer is good-looking?" "YES!" "Fuck!" That was Bernie the controversial cheerleader speaking! "I think I'll call up Don and ask him to come get me!" "WHAT!" Well, you're here to get your annual so I'll close love you

Liza, I'm mentally searching for an adjective to describe the experience of knowing you, but my mind seems to be blank. Enjoyable? Unusual? Both of these. Maybe I'll see you again; I don't know what life at Caroline I don't hope for you isant and you (that is). Try and enjoy your life. I hope you have expectations and you problems won't measure up to yours. (expectations that is). Try to enjoy the little things, and the big problems won't seem so unbearable.

Liza!

Well, well, where do I start? How about all our eng. classes. They've really been fun. (So has Trig, though!) We've really had some great times. One in particular was your New Years party. You & me & Beth & Cathy like your bathroom! Oh, yes. I hope your mother got to brush her hair! Remember all our little "cutty-cutty" talks (oh, and your little laugh-laugh calls - I know you were sleepy, Liza! I want to come over & hear Al Koopers "W-o-o-u - Shit!" That do bring some memories back - all our prank calls to Rusty Morton! Let's go to Southern & get paranoid on the hill one more time! (You know there are times when the wolves are silent & the moon howls!!) (Who is Tute) Hey - me & you & Pete & Rick never got together & had a drink. Oh, no! How about Cathy's last yr. new years party. Sweet Bernie! Really we've had some great times at GHS (as well as not at GHS) I know there are 50-11 more things we've done but Jan's mind ain't workin'! We're gonna have to keep in touch next year. I'll come see you at Schapel Hill & you can come up & visit Happy Appy. You are one of the greatest people I know - also the craziest! I know you'll go furr in life! If you ever get in trouble, just remember to "REGROUP" (Mrs Gage) If you ever need anyone to talk to call old Jan. (But, please, not when your sleepy!) I consider you one of my "bestest" friends and I hope we will remain friends throughout life. Best of ~~all~~ luck in the future & at Carolina! Be ~~a~~ a lotta bit good & a hell-of-a lot careful!

Love,

Jan

(what will we be?)

Hi Li,
Since you are forcing me to sign your annual in the middle of the summer I think I'll say that I hate you, I hate you, I hate you! But I'm kinda neat! Seriously now, easy, easy! As one Aquarian to Another, you're not too bad, and I really enjoy you as a person. Are we both insane? I believe the probability of the afore mentioned subject matter being true is very high. We have really done some un-calm things together. Twist-ties, float music, "Osmonds", making up the bed, "Beth, I want you to meditate", our physical education program for the disabled at Appalachia! We must get some sympathy cards for the students at Elon. Going to Betty's with Donn and going to Saxapahaw! Thanks for getting me into Frank Zappa we have really had some experiences with Concerts. The Yes concert spent in the bathroom with Leigh. What a Rush! It's a Trip! Dig it! Cutting with Jayne Maness. Remember our eating excursion when we ate at every place in Burlington? Makes your mouth water! I know there must be 50,000 other things I'm leaving out but my head is not scheduled to start working again until August 24, 1973, when we hit Chapel Hill. Pity poor Frisbee Taylor! We'd just like to say you're really a great friend and I'm really relieved that we've got 4 more years! Now let's work hard in the years to come to get on the 18th green again and let's try not to double bogie! If you EVER need me for anything just call I'll be in your friendly neighborhood Ozymoronic Temple! God Bless You (I didn't sneeze) came to your house while Marion & I were there? That reminds me of Ray - I never knew him except by your words - Lisa Hegge. Remember the anniversary pagama want your recipe! Speaking of Marion, remember when we followed her and Steve all over the place and got madder & madder! Remember "200 Hotels" - my first date with Kim & you were right behind me in that hippie groove! Remember "to each his own. I wouldn't touch

"Sardos" (messed a pill company, but he took it as a clue to the type of drug!). Gee, it wasn't as hard to remember after all. I better quit writing now. My wife left out

I want to thank you for being so good a friend and

Dear ~~Lisa~~ Liza!

Boo hoo! Here is the end of our <sup>boo!</sup> Senior <sup>hoo!</sup> year <sup>SNIFF SNIFF</sup>. I was going to write a bunch of typical bullshit, but I can't.

Some changes sure took place this year over last year! In the first place, no one has to call the Brotherhood Center for you to see if "Bernie is working tonight." also, you don't care about Mr. Oakley, Jr. to want to know if he is working. I'm not good at remembering things to write down here, but I'm trying. Remember the first time you called me? That was weird! - you told me all about Steve and Polly and played "Junk 48" for me! That was the song, wasn't it? #4 #4 #4 ~~5~~ and then things moved on to world history and Mrs. Honeycutt and Larry under the hollyhush with your <sup>(plural)</sup> braided hair and our riot (<sup>HA HA HA</sup> Rupert took us home as we chided). Oh, I almost left out Gary T! and his ping pong championship! <sup>HA</sup> Remember my surprise Birthday party? ("Lowdown" is on the radio now. That's why I remembered!) <sup>HA</sup> My mother actually invited you into our house - you magnificent bundle of evil! She doesn't mind your evil here though - it's me going into the evil of your house. Maybe it's more concentrated there. Then there was sleeping through English last year. Mrs. Nelson still reminds me (this year) of how me & you used to either talk or sleep last year - I still do it! Remember your party! You rubbed Kimbo's back all night while I talked to Buddy about Sylvia (poor thing was hurt because she was around Jimmie instead of him) and threw your beer pillow at him. Remember Jimmie? <sup>HA HA HA</sup> ~~5~~ Remember Sylvia's p.j. party and all the people that got called - and Marion cried over women's lib & "George" ate the cheesecake. Remember that outdoor concert at Elon by the lake?, Kittinger <sup>HA HA HA</sup> ~~5~~, the little pills "for stomach aches" or whatever we told Marion!, <sup>Buddy Himes Ginter teacher,</sup> all the times we tried (in vain) to get me off (not off of Buddy Himes either!). Your New Year's Eve party this year (we had Kim at this one!!). Oh, I almost forgot to remind you of your MYF beach trip last year! I doubt you'll forget it anyway!! Remember all our discussions

Liza
Where do I begin? We've been through so much & had so many good times you've got to be one of the craziest people I've ever met. You can always be yourself no matter what you're doing or where you're at, never worrying too much about what other people think about you. I've always wished that I could be more like that. Liza, I know we haven't done very much in the last few years but you're still one of my closest friends. We go for a while & never hardly speak to each other & then we can start talking & it seems just like old times. You're one of the few people that I could really be myself around. I don't know why, I guess it's because you're so crazy yourself. Liza, I wish you the best of luck at Carolina next year. I hope you'll make the best of it & not let it get like GHS affects you. I hope you'll remember all the talks we've had throughout the years & not get like so many of the people are now. I just hope that you'll think before you do things. Liza, I sincerely appreciate your friendship throughout our 4 yrs. at GHS. Sometimes I don't think I could have made it if it hadn't been for you. I hope that we can remain good friends throughout our future years & keep in touch. Liza, you have the potentials of being a great person. I hope you'll put your talents to work & become a big success. Well, I guess we'll go our separate ways next year but we have our memories to take with us & most of them are really good. Liza, I'll never forget you & the many good times we've had. I'm just sorry they have to come to an end so soon. But, I guess all good things have to come to an end & have new ones replace them. I'm really going to miss you next year. I hope you'll come to see me soon & I'll try to do the same for you. I wish you all the luck in the world. I can't think of a person who deserves it any more than you. Be good & keep in touch, O.K. I'll see you around lots, hopefully in the years to come.
Have you had yours today?
Love
Beverly Thompson

Liza!

You wild hair! It's raining like hell + I'm scared & I have no calmer-downers. But, I guess signing (whatever that means) your annual will do almost as good. I don't want to go back into my mind looking for things that aren't there anymore. Because all those little things that meant nothing gave me just one thought about you. We've never really gone out to do anything together but I think we could get along well enough to have some great times. If we ever get the chance (which we will only if we want it) we probably will.

Just so you can read this twenty years from now I recall who I am - here's somethings to think about: Tricky Mirrors - you're the only one that's ever seen a mirror do that to me. That room was crowded! 3 Musketeers - can't figure out what gave me the taste for it, but I loved it and it only took me 2 hours to chew <sup>it</sup> up. Ritz crackers & Mustard - come back any time - we'll find something for you to eat + for little what's her name to play with. How about some stale Capt. Crunch! Hair Pieces - Barbara almost died + I almost did even after you went after it. I really don't know what we would have done without you to help, carry things down to the stands (winter coats + blankets) and to calm me down when the fire burns.

I truly hope (typically) that we will someday be really great friends. I'll always <sup>remember</sup> all those ridiculous things you were always doing and think of you as a sensitive person because of your little extra considerations. Be careful next year at Carolina but remember you can always call on me for whatever you need + I'll do my best! no matter what or who or where or when!

P.S. Don't forget to Act Party!

Love,
Sandra
